PASSPORT ISSUED | AGES 13-15

Welcome to Your 7-Day Passport

7

7 missions | 10-15 minutes a day | Grown-up helps for 3 minutes

A note for grown-ups

This is a fun practice book. It is not homework and it is not a test. There are no marks and no wrong answers. Your job is small: spend about 3 to 5 minutes a day listening, asking, and cheering. Let your child try on their own. Mistakes are okay. That is how we learn.

A note for you

Hi explorer! This is your passport to doing more things on your own. Every day you get one small mission. Do it, write what you think, and talk about it with a grown-up. Nobody is judging you. Collect all 7 stamps!

3 easy steps every day

1. Do your mission | 10-15 minutes
   Try the daily challenge on your own.
2. Think about it | 2 minutes
   Answer one question about your day.
3. Talk with a grown-up | 3 minutes
   Chat about it and tick how much help you needed (see page 9).

My Passport Stamps

Stick a sticker or colour a circle after each mission.

1 DAY | 2 DAY | 3 DAY | 4 DAY | 5 DAY | 6 DAY | 7 DAY

Tip: Pick the same time every day, like after dinner. Doing it daily makes it a habit!

My name: _____ Start date: _____

DAY 1 | MONEY

Needs or Wants?

1

10 minutes | Notebook & pen

Why it matters

Some things we must have. Some things are just nice to have. Knowing the difference helps you spend money wisely.

Your mission

Think about things you bought or asked for this month. Write 3 NEEDS (things you must have) and 3 WANTS (things that are nice to have).

Show your work: 3 Needs and 3 Wants written down.

My 3 Needs	My 3 Wants
1. _____	1. _____
2. _____	2. _____
3. _____	3. _____

Think about it

Which one WANT could you skip next week to save money for something big?

_____

_____

_____

Grown-up's job

Listen and do not judge. Share one need and one want from your own week.

Grown-up check: how much help did you need? (tick one)

1	2	3	4
I needed lots of help	I needed some help	I did it on my own	I did it on my own and told why

☐ Mission complete! Stamp date: ____ / ____ / _____

DAY 2 | LISTENING

Super Listener

2

10 minutes | Nothing needed

Why it matters

Good talkers are good listeners first. When people feel heard, they feel happy and respected.

Your mission

Talk with someone in your family for 10 minutes. Before you share your idea, say back what they told you. Try: "So you are saying..."

Show your work: One sentence: what did you learn from the talk?

What I learned from the talk:

_____

_____

Think about it

Was it easy or hard to wait until they finished talking? Why?

_____

_____

_____

Grown-up's job

Have a chat with your child. Tell them honestly if you felt heard.

Grown-up check: how much help did you need? (tick one)

1	2	3	4
I needed lots of help	I needed some help	I did it on my own	I did it on my own and told why

DAY 3 | AD SMARTS

Fact or Trick?

3

15 minutes

Phone or magazine

Why it matters

Ads want you to buy things. They do not always tell you the whole story.

Your mission

Find one ad on a phone or in a magazine. Write 1 FACT it says. Write 1 TRICK it uses to make you want the thing (like "Only today!").

Show your work: 1 Fact and 1 Trick written down.

1 FACT the ad says	1 TRICK the ad uses

Think about it

How did the ad want you to feel?

Grown-up's job

Ask questions like "Who made this? What do they want me to do?" Let your child find the answers.

Grown-up check: how much help did you need? (tick one)

- ○ 1 — I needed lots of help
- ○ 2 — I needed some help
- ○ 3 — I did it on my own
- ○ 4 — I did it on my own and told why

☐ Mission complete! Stamp date: ____ / ____ / _____

DAY 4 | FEELINGS

My Calm-Down Plan

4

10 minutes | Paper & pen

Why it matters

Everyone gets angry or upset sometimes. That is okay. A short pause helps you stay in charge of what you do next.

Your mission

Make your own 2-minute calm-down plan. Ideas: take 5 slow breaths, walk away for 2 minutes, drink water, or listen to one song.

Show your work: Your 2-minute calm-down plan, written down.

My body tells me I am upset when: _____

I will go to: _____

For 2 minutes I will: _____

Then I will: _____

Think about it

How does your body feel when you start getting upset? (fast heartbeat, hot face...)

_____

_____

_____

Grown-up's job

Tell your child it is okay to feel angry. Share what you do when you feel upset.

I needed lots of help	I needed some help	I did it on my own	I did it on my own and told why

☐ Mission complete! Stamp date: ____ / ____ / _____

DAY 5 | ONLINE SAFETY

Stay Safe Online

5

15 minutes | Phone or laptop

Why it matters

Strong passwords and careful sharing keep you safe from online tricksters.

Your mission

With a grown-up nearby, check 2 of your accounts or devices. Is the password long (8 or more letters) with numbers and symbols? Look at the privacy settings too.

Show your work: A finished safety checklist.

Tick the box for Yes. Never write your real password.

Check	Account: _____	Account: _____
Password has 8 or more letters	☐	☐
Has numbers and symbols	☐	☐
Different from my other passwords	☐	☐
Privacy settings checked	☐	☐
Notifications checked	☐	☐

Think about it

Why should you never tell your OTP to anyone?

Grown-up's job

Sit with your child. Never say or write real passwords. Talk about OTP and UPI safety together.

Grown-up check: how much help did you need? (tick one)

- ○ 1 — I needed lots of help
- ○ 2 — I needed some help
- ○ 3 — I did it on my own
- ○ 4 — I did it on my own and told why

DAY 6 | HOME SKILLS

Kitchen Helper

6

20 minutes | Easy kitchen things

Why it matters

Making a small snack by yourself feels great and helps your family too.

Your mission

Make an easy snack or drink (like a sandwich, oats, tea, or poha) for yourself or someone at home. Then clean up.

Show your work: A served snack and a clean counter.

What I made: _____

- ☐ I served my snack.
- ☐ The counter is clean.

Think about it

What was the hardest part?

_____

_____

_____

Grown-up's job

Stay close for safety near the stove and knives. Let your child do the work.

DAY 7 | LOOKING BACK

My Week Review

7

15 minutes | Your finished pages

Why it matters

Looking back shows you how much you grew this week.

Your mission

Look at Days 1 to 6. Fill in the My Week table below.

Show your work: A filled-in My Week table.

DAY	SKILL	SCORE	I'M PROUD THAT...
1	Money
2	Listening
3	Ad Smarts
4	Staying Calm
5	Online Safety
6	Kitchen Skills

My favorite mission: _____

A skill I want to practice more: _____

My goal for next week: _____

Think about it

Which skill are you best at now?

Grown-up's job

Cheer for your child's effort! Ask which mission was the most fun or the most useful.

Celebrate together! Enjoy a favorite snack, go for a walk, or play a family game. Cheering for effort helps kids keep trying.

Grown-up check: how much help did you need? (tick one)

- ○ 1 — I needed lots of help
- ○ 2 — I needed some help
- ○ 3 — I did it on my own
- ○ 4 — I did it on my own and told why

☐ Mission complete! Stamp date: ____ / ____ / _____

GROWN-UP GUIDE

Grown-up Check: How Much Help?

Use after every mission

Use this after each mission. You will also see it on every day page, so you can tick it right there.

1 I needed lots of help

2 I needed some help

3 I did it on my own

4 I did it on my own and told why

Note for grown-ups: A higher number only means your child needed less help with that one task. It does not mean they are better or worse. Cheer for effort and for trying again!

Three questions to ask after each mission

- "What did you do first?"
- "What surprised you?"
- "What will you do differently next time?"

WHAT'S NEXT

What's Next? The 90-Day Journey

Keep going!

You finished your 7-Day Passport! In one week you practiced seven real-life skills. Small things you do every day add up and help you grow more independent.

These 7 days are a small taste of the full 90-Day Growing Up Passport. It has a new mission every day and goes deeper into:

Money

Saving, budgeting, and spending wisely

Resilience

Bouncing back when things go wrong

Time Management

Planning your day and finishing what you start

Leadership

Taking responsibility and working with others

Want to keep going? Ask a grown-up about the full 90-Day Edition.

Thank you for growing together!
